BC ASSEMBLY OF FIRST NATIONS

About the BC Assembly of First Nations

The BC Assembly of First Nations (“BCAFN”) is a provincial-territorial organization whose membership is made up of 203 First Nations in British Columbia. The BCAFN is one of the ten regional organizations affiliated with the national Assembly of First Nations (AFN) whose members include over 600 First Nations across Canada. The Regional Chief of the BC Region also serves as a member of the Executive of the AFN. The Regional Chief represents the regional concerns of the BCAFN constituents on the Executive Committee to ensure that regional perspectives are included in national political discussions and decision-making. The Regional Chief also holds specific portfolios that deal with national policy issues and concerns. The BCAFN is also an incorporated society under the BC Societies Act (S-45919). This allows the BCAFN to operate with its own regionally specific mandates and to establish relationships with the Provincial government and other organizations, in addition to the relationship that the BCAFN holds with the AFN. The BCAFN operates to create linkages between the regional and national political processes to ensure that these activities are communicated and represented at a First Nation level.
